

Buxton Press Limited ("Buxton") whose registered office is at Palace Road, Buxton Derbyshire, SK17 6AE (Company Registration Number: 662586) is one of the UK's leading sheet-fed litho printing companies, printing paper supplied on sheets and reels for subsequent production of paginated publications for publishing clients.

Wherever possible, Buxton is committed to protecting the local and global environment and to integrating environmental management into its business activities. To minimise environmental impacts concerning its activities, products and services, Buxton shall endeavour to:

- Maintain an Environmental Management System (EMS) as part of its Integrated Management System (IMS), which strives to meet the requirements of ISO 14001:2015 through corrective action and continuous improvement.
- Provide a framework for setting and reviewing its environmental objectives and targets with a commitment to update and improve the EMS as part of the IMS where applicable.
- Prevent pollution and reduce waste and harmful emissions wherever possible; minimise the consumption of resources and responsibly source raw materials wherever possible.
- Comply with applicable UK environmental legislation and any other requirements or acts to which the Company subscribes relating to its environmental impacts and subsequent significant aspects.
- Include the consideration of environmental issues in its business strategies and initiatives and work where possible with interested parties to optimise their impact on our environmental performance.
- Buxton's senior management is committed to ensuring that the protection of the environment is an integral part of the company's culture and will endeavour to influence its suppliers and customers in a similar strategic environmental manner if appropriate.
- Ensure this policy is made available to all persons working for or on behalf of Buxton Press Limited and on request to all stakeholders; contractors and suppliers; the public and relevant interested parties as and where appropriate.
- Encourage, educate, train and motivate employees to act in accordance with the environmental policy and to carry out tasks in a suitably responsible manner to enhance environmental awareness, biodiversity and ecology.
- Consider the wider global impact of all activities including those of our suppliers, customers, other stakeholders and relevant interested parties and investigate the feasibility of influencing same with consideration to the life cycle impacts of their aspects and activities to encourage environmental protection among suppliers and subcontractors.

Buxton Press is committed to the continual improvement of its environmental performance and as such this policy will be reviewed on an annual basis - or sooner if necessary - by Buxton's senior management.
